

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Weak Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every five minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though one had heart trouble, because the heart is overworking in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It is to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make a mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

AN EX-KENTUCKY PASTOR HONOR-CD.

Only twice in the history of the Philadelphia Conference of Baptist ministers has a colored man been honored with the privilege of being appointed to read a paper upon the regular programme of that body and this honor came to Rev. W. A. Criditt, D. D., pastor of the Cherry Street Baptist church, Monday morning May 25th. The subject selected was "Unity of the Races through Christianity as an Agent" and it was handled in a masterly way by one of the most eloquent divines of the race. Among the distinguished ministers present were Drs. Wayland Hoyt John Garden, Charles Wood, Kerr, Boyce Tupper, H. G. Westoo and others and it was the consensus of opinion that it was one of the most scholarly papers in composition and the most forceful in delivery that was ever heard in that historic body. Besides being warmly applauded during its delivery he was personally thanked and congratulated by nearly every one present. He has also received the following appreciate letters:

"Philadelphia, May 19 1903. My Dear Criditt: You must have seen and felt yesterday morning what a tremendous success your address was. And everywhere I went during the day among the brethren, I found enthusiastic commendation of it. It was a superb piece of work every way. I do not remember ever to have seen the Conference so completely carried away. Thank you for the splendid service. Yours as ever, B. L. WHITMAN."

"Philadelphia, May 20 1903. My Dear Brother Criditt: I wish to thank you for the masterly address delivered by you before the Philadelphia Conference of Baptist Ministers last Monday morning on the "Unity of the Race through Christianity as an Agent." I wish to call your attention to two things which were highly complimentary to you. A whole car load of our men went to Buffalo that very morning and so could not be present, and yet we had one of the largest attendances we have had for a long while; no other man in Philadelphia could have drawn such an audience last Monday again; no man in my recollection ever received so much applause while speaking or such an ovation when through as you did on Monday. Your address on Monday deserves a place among the masterpieces of American oratory. May God hasten the day when your dream shall be a fact. Fraternal yours, JOSEPH A. BENNETT, Secretary."

The fact that Dr. Criditt was once a Kentucky pastor and a professor in State University, the Baptist college at Louisville, makes this event a matter of special interest to the people of that state who know and admire him. AMOS.

CLIMBING ROSES.

The following is taken from The Delinquent for July; June and July are the months to train climbing roses. The hardy climbing roses are the main reliance, in the North, for free effects, and one of the most artistic uses to which the are adapted is for embowing verandas, balconies and doorways. Other picturesque uses for climbing roses are as covering for summer houses and canopied walks, for arching gateways or festooned from post to post along driveways, using heavy wires for support. A very pretty effect is secured by training a climbing rose to a substantial post of imposing height, the result being a pillar of roses. The crimson Rambler is the most satisfactory variety to use for these purposes. Other fine ramblers are Psyches, Philadelphia and the Dawson. Dorothy Perkins, a new climber, Cumberland Belle, a new moss-rose climber, and climbing old-time Bonquet will all commend themselves to lovers of roses.

WEDDING BELLS.

The marriage of Miss Annie May Scales to Rev. Richard Thomas Frye, at the Fifth Street Baptist church, Thursday evening June 4th was one of the most fashionable occasions of the season. Despite the threatening weather the church was crowded with friends to witness the marriage. During the interval of assembling the audience enjoyed the voluntaries on the pipe organ by Mrs. Mamie E. Steward, while the guests were being seated by Messrs. J. S. Hopson, E. I. Master-son, H. H. Able and J. H. Black who served as ushers. The wedding party was announced by the beautiful strain of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The ushers preceded the party and were followed by Messrs. J. S. Chipley, J. W. Ramsey, S. O. Johnson and Robert Brown and Misses Pattie V. Frye, Ida B. Nugent, Hattie Daniel and Nanine Oden. Miss Nora B. Ferguson, the maid of honor, with little Miss Mozee escorted by her brother who preceded the bride leaning on the arm of Mr. E. D. Walker. At the altar which was beautifully decorated with evergreens, plants and ferns, they were met by the groom and Mr. J. H. Frye his brother who acted as best man. The ceremony was then performed in an impressive manner by Rev. J. H. Frank, D. D. There was a ripple of subdued laughter when at the close of the ceremony the groom saluted the blushing bride. The guests then repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Walker, No. 729 W. Walnut st., the home of the bride, where an elaborate reception was had. The happy couple were not only the recipient of the congratulations of numerous friends but also many handsome presents. Among the visitors who came to attend the marriage were Mr. Orange Frye, of Danville, Ky., father of the groom, Mrs. Millie Hill, of Franklin, Ky., mother of the bride, Mr. Wm. Fielding, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Clayborne McKeever, of Nashville, Mrs. Mintie Hartgroves, of Franklin, Mrs. Willis Hampton, of Bowling Green, Mrs. Fannie Johnson, Heubers Station, Ky. and Master Charley Beauchamp, of Bowling Green. The happy couple left for Danville, Ky., Friday afternoon, where they are at home to friends.
